

DESIGN THE FUTURE

A four-year high school program that combines English classes and Digital Media courses to immerse students in hands-on, cross-curricular projects modeled after authentic workplace experiences. Students have opportunities to work in and explore the fields of graphic design, broadcasting, animation, video/audio editing, and web design.

Scan the QR code to apply! Applications are due March 31st, 2021.